I'm thinking you get a lot of money and access to performers through the Free Speech Coalition.

We are funded by two grants from non-profits. One is a foundation, the other is federal. We have never received any funding from FSC. I do not "access" performers for any of my research.

You just lied to me, we know for a fact you use performers.

I am happy to give you the number for my IRB, where you can report however you think performers were "used".

So what foundation funds your studies?

It is a meditation foundation. They do not do any work with performers, films, etc. Some of that work is described here:
