

The @pornhelps Twitter account and PornHelps website were suddenly deleted when it became apparent to everyone that Prause was behind both.

+++++

While many of us being attacked knew “PornHelps” was really Nicole Prause, the following @pornhelps tweet left no doubt:

Prause, a Kinsey grad, calls herself a neuroscientist (although it’s not clear that she has a degree in neuroscience), and appears to have started college about 15 years earlier than the above 2016 tweet.

In response to several ad hominem attacks by “PornHelps,” which perfectly mirrored many of Prause’s usual comments, “PornHelps” was confronted in the comments section of Psychology Today with this and other evidence: <https://www.psychologytoday.com/us/comment/887468#comment-887468>

Wonder who pornhelps really is?

I just checked out pornhelps twitter account and discovered a few things:

Pornhelps is a neuroscientist (15 years studying as neuroscientist. Same as Prause?) <https://twitter.com/pornhelps/status/768836072990056448>

Here's Pornhelps attacking neuroscientist Mateusz Gola in the comments section under his new study which support the porn addiction model - <http://biorxiv.org/content/early/2016/06/08/057083#comment-2733252037>

Here's Pornhelps attacking reddit/nofap founder Alexander Rhodes and Time editor Belinda Luscombe - <https://twitter.com/pornhelps/status/756504811252494336>

Dr. Prause joins in calling Alexander a liar - <https://twitter.com/NicoleRPrause/status/756515304004616192>

Dr. Prause joins in calling Belinda Luscombe a liar - <https://twitter.com/NicoleRPrause/status/756515304004616192>

And the studies on the front page of pornhelps.com appear to be same studies Dr. Prause always cites in her talks and interviews.

Draw your own conclusions as to who pornhelps really is.....

Within a few days of the above Psychology Today comment the PornHelps website and @pornhelps Twitter account vanished without a trace.

All that remains of PornHelps is a smattering of comments on various sites and this abandoned Disqus account, listing 87 comments. (80-page PDF of numerous aliases Prause used to defame and harass Gary Wilson).
