AARON M. MINC, ESQ.
200 Park Avenue, Suite 200
Orange Village, Ohio 44122

Plaintiff,

v.

MELISSA A. FARMER
426 West Belmont Ave, Apt 1206
Chicago, IL 60657-4705

Defendant.

) CASE NO.

) JUDGE:

) COMPLAINT FOR
) DEFAMATION AND FALSE

) JURY TRIAL REQUESTED

For his Complaint against Defendant Melissa Farmer (“Defendant”), Plaintiff Aaron M. Minc (“Plaintiff”) alleges as follows:

PARTIES, JURISDICTION, & VENUE

1. Plaintiff is an attorney licensed to practice law in Ohio and owns and operates a law firm, Minc LLC. Plaintiff is located at the above captioned address. Plaintiff operates an account on the social media platform Twitter with the username @RepLawyer.

2. Defendant is a sex and pain researcher with a PhD in Clinical Psychology and resides in Chicago, IL. Defendant operates a Twitter account with the username @Farmer_MindBody.

3. Nicole R. Prause is a California resident. Prause operates an account on Twitter with the username “Liberos” and/or “@NicoleRPrause.” Prause filed for bankruptcy on August 18, 2020 under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California, Case No. 2:20-bk-17828-NB. Plaintiff is in the process of obtaining leave from the Bankruptcy Court to include her as a defendant in this lawsuit. When Plaintiff obtains such permission, Plaintiff intends to request leave to amend his Complaint pursuant to Ohio Civ. R. 15 to add Prause as a co-defendant.

4. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to O.R.C. § 2305.01.

5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant pursuant to O.R.C. § 2307.382(A)(6) and venue is proper under Ohio R. Civ. P. 3(C)(3) and (6).

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

6. Plaintiff's law firm currently represents a third party in a lawsuit against Prause. Throughout the course of this lawsuit, Prause has continuously used her Twitter account to attack the reputation of people involved in the lawsuit. Prause has thousands of followers on Twitter. Plaintiff has had little to no personal involvement in the litigation.

7. On or about July 28, 2020, Prause published a series of public tweets on her Twitter account claiming she feared for her safety because Plaintiff had directly sent Prause's home and work addresses, which are presumably private and confidential, to a group of people that have been threatening to kill her for years. Prause's Tweet included an image message from one of the hate group members that said, "[I'll] kill that bitch any time if you'd like me to. Fuck those people." A true and accurate copy of Prause's twitter posts are attached hereto as Exhibit A 1-4 ("Prause's Tweets).

8. Plaintiff replied to Prause's Tweets denying the allegations because they are patently false. Prior to July 28, 2020, Plaintiff barely even knew who Prause was. Plaintiff has no knowledge of Prause's addresses. Plaintiff has never sent Prause's home or work addresses to anyone. Plaintiff has no knowledge about any death threats by anyone against Prause. Plaintiff also has no knowledge of anyone else disseminating Prause's addresses. Plaintiff has no knowledge regarding any of Prause's allegations.

9. Prause additionally claimed that she had contacted the LAPD, who were investigating the matter. When Plaintiff continuously denied her allegations, Prause directed Plaintiff to “Talk to LAPD.”

10. Prause encouraged her twitter followers to repeat her claims, harass Plaintiff by commenting and liking all of the responses she received in support of her claims. One of Prause’s twitter followers with the username “Chanell @nellyy” responded to Plaintiff’s denial by saying, “What a piece of shit!”

11. Two of Prause’s other twitter followers shared the Prause Tweet with the twitter accounts @womenofsextech and @CAGoldberglaw. @CAGoldberglaw is the twitter account of Carrie Goldberg, a sexual assault victims’ advocate and attorney based in New York, from whom Plaintiff receives client referrals. The Prause Tweet has negatively impacted this business relationship.

12. Notwithstanding Plaintiffs explicit denial, on or about July 30, 2020, Defendant publicly republished Prause’s Tweets and directly messaged and/or shared them with the Ohio State Bar Association, Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association, and the Ohio Supreme Court’s twitter accounts. The Defendant’s twitter post (“Defendant’s Tweet”) is attached as Exhibit B.

13. Defendant’s Tweet claimed that Plaintiff was “engaging in ethics violations that endanger [a] third party (Ohio Rules of Prof. Conduct Rule 4.4.” Defendant’s Tweet attached a screenshot image of the Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct 4.4 taken from the Ohio Supreme Court website. Defendant’s claims and allegations are false and defamatory per se.

COUNT I: LIBEL AND LIBEL PER SE

14. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations in the foregoing paragraphs as if rewritten here.

15. The Defendant published tweets containing false statements of fact of and concerning Plaintiff claiming that Plaintiff had violated attorney ethical rules by directly disseminating Prause's confidential home and work address to people that want to kill her.

16. Defendant published the false statements without any privilege to do so.

17. Defendant published her false statements with malice, reckless disregard, and/or at least a negligent level of intent.

18. The false statements in Defendant's Tweets are defamatory per se.

19. Plaintiff has suffered special harm, actual damage, loss to reputation, emotional distress, mental anguish, suffering, and other harm because of Defendant's Tweets, the full amount of which will be proven at trial.

20. Plaintiff additionally requests a permanent injunction against Defendant declaring that these allegations are false, defamatory, and that Defendant is prohibited from creating or publishing the same or similar defamatory statements about Plaintiff or his business in the future.

COUNT 2: FALSE LIGHT

21. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations in the foregoing paragraphs as if rewritten here.

22. Defendant's Tweets publicly cast Plaintiff in a false light to the Ohio State Bar Association, Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association, the Ohio Supreme Court, as well as a vast audience of Twitter users.

23. The false light Defendant placed Plaintiff in is highly offensive to a reasonable person.

24. Defendant published her Tweet with at least reckless disregard as to the falsity of the facts contained in the Tweet and the false light in which Plaintiff would be placed.

25. Plaintiff has suffered special harm, actual damage, loss to reputation, emotional distress, mental anguish, suffering, and other harm because of Defendant's Tweets, the full amount of which will be proven at trial.

26. Plaintiff additionally requests a permanent injunction against Defendant declaring that these allegations are false, defamatory, and that Defendant is prohibited from creating or publishing the same or similar defamatory statements about Plaintiff or his business in the future.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendant in conformity with the allegations set forth above and asks this Court to award compensatory, special, actual, and punitive damages amounting to at least $25,000 with the exact amount to be proven at trial, attorneys fee's and court costs, a permanent injunction against Defendant declaring that these allegations are false, defamatory, and that Defendant is prohibited from creating or publishing the same or similar defamatory statements about Plaintiff or his business in the future, and for any and all other relief at law or in equity as the Court deems equitable, just, and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Aaron M. Minc

 My physical home and work address were just sent directly to the group that has been posting death threats to me for 7 years. I am closing everything again and moving yet again. Anti-porn extremist stalking must stop. I cannot keep myself, family, colleagues, or participants safe.

You can ask @RepLawyer why he just sent my physical location to this group that offered to kill me multiple times.

Dr. Melissa A. Farmer
@Farmer_MindBody

Attention @OSBA @CleMetroBar @OHSupremeCourt
- Ohio lawyer @RepLawyer engaging in ethics violations that endanger third party (Ohio Rules of Prof Conduct Rule 4.4).

8:18 Not Secure — supremeccourt.ohio.gov

RULE 4.4: RESPECT FOR RIGHTS OF THIRD PERSONS

(a) In representing a client, a lawyer shall not use means that have no substantial purpose other than to embarrass, harass, delay, or burden a third person, or use methods of obtaining evidence that violate the legal rights of such a person.

(b) A lawyer who receives a document or electronically stored information relating to the representation of the lawyer's client and knows or reasonably should know that the document or electronically stored information was inadvertently sent shall promptly notify the sender.

Comment

(1) Responsibility to a client requires a lawyer to subordinate the interests of others to those of the client; but that responsibility does not imply that a lawyer may disregard the rights of third persons. It is impractical to catalogue all such rights, but they include legal restrictions on methods of obtaining evidence from third persons and unwarranted intrusions into privileged relationships, such as the client-lawyer relationship.

(2) Division (b) recognizes that lawyers sometimes receive a document or electronically stored information that was inadvertently sent or produced by opposing parties or their lawyers. A document or electronically stored information is inadvertently sent when it is accidentally transmitted, such as when an email or letter is misaddressed or a document or electronically stored information is accidentally included with information that was intentionally transmitted. If a lawyer knows or reasonably should know that such a document or electronically stored information was sent inadvertently, then this rule requires the lawyer to promptly notify the sender. For purposes of this rule, "document or electronically stored information" includes paper and electronic documents, electronic communications, and other forms of electronically stored information, including embedded data (commonly referred to as "metadata"), that is subject to being read or put into readable form. Metadata in electronic documents creates an obligation under this rule only if the receiving lawyer knows or reasonably should know that the metadata was sent inadvertently to the receiving lawyer.

(3) Some lawyers may choose to return a document or delete electronically stored information unread. For example, when the lawyer learns before receiving it that it was sent inadvertently. Where a lawyer is not required by applicable law to do so, the decision to voluntarily return such a document or delete electronically stored information is a matter of professional judgment and is fairly assessed to the lawyer, subject to applicable law that may govern discovery. See Rules 1.2 and 1.4.

Comparison to former Ohio Code of Professional Responsibility

Rule 4.4(a) incorporates elements addressed by several provisions of the Ohio Code of Professional Responsibility. Specifically, it contains elements of: (1) DR 7-102(A)(1), which, in part, prohibits a lawyer from making action on behalf of a client that serves merely to harass another; (2) DR 7-105(F)(2), which, in part, prohibits a lawyer from asking any questions that the lawyer has no reasonable basis to believe is relevant and that is intended to degrade a third person; and (3) DR 7-108(D) and (E), which, in part, prohibit a lawyer from making action that merely embarrasses or burdens a third person.

Rule 4.4(b) addresses the situation of when a lawyer receives a document that was inadvertently sent to the lawyer. There is no Disciplinary Rule comparable to Rule 4.4(b).

Comparison to ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct

Rule 4.4(a) is identical to Model Rule 4.4(a), with the additional prohibition of actions that have no substantial purpose other than to "harass" a third person.

Rule 4.4(b) is identical to Model Rule 4.4(b).
